I am really a little irritated, since I don't want to the Microsoft approach and I definitely want to stay with Microsoft Office. So my question is: how is this possible that Microsoft doesn't offer Office 2010 activation any more? I am using Windows 7 Home Premium (no office 2010). Now, I am not in the right mood to install the appropriate system updates and therefor I wanted to install a fresh copy. But when I try to activate Office 2010 there is the following message: "The product can not be activated because of an invalid product key. Please contact your organization administrator to obtain a valid Microsoft Office Product key. " Which means that I have to contact my administrator to get a valid office 2010 key. Now, I have installed this Office 2010 software just two days ago, but I don't have the activation code (I don't remember to have entered it in the new installation). What do you suggest? Maybe I can contact Microsoft? Please advice!

Installing Office 2016 on an existing Office
2010 installation
requires that you
use the only available

activation option:
the telephone
activation option.
You have to call a
telephone
activation center
to pay the fee. You don't need to contact a Microsoft
customer support

center because only the telephone option can be used to activate an Office product. This is the only option for the Office 2016 product. For more information, see the Office 2016

help site. Microsoft Office 2010 is the latest version of Microsoft Office
which succeeds in
Microsoft Office
2016. Microsoft
Office 2016
Product Key is the key that will provide you to work with Office 2010 professional

plus. If you are using Office 365,
you can easily
upgrade to Office
2010 using MS
Office 2016

Product Key.
These Serial Keys
are the best and
popular software
released by Microsoft that has added many programs such as
Word, PowerPoint,
Excel, Outlook,

Access, and Microsoft One note
as well. C2R and
phone activation
still works on my Office 2007 Home
and Student but its not near Office Professional 2010.
I did call the

activation line and
got the required
Office 2010
activation
numbers (12
groups of numbers
or so), typed them
all in but at the finish clicking next

an automatic voice
said I cannot find
the key. I dont want Office365 in
the Cloud. Bought a new key Office2016 but now W7 is also not supported
anymore it cannot

run without
crashing as it needs updates. So
you must know that Microsoft is
the developer of
2010, so you
should always be able to run

2010 without
activating it, but
its activated which is a very surprising
fact. Every user
will find it difficult
to activate this
version of office,
as the process of

activating is very difficult and an expert has to perform the process.
